

Born To Love

Nolan Taylor

Well I was born to love you
And I am unsure why
Since the day that I met you, girl
I couldn't keep you off my mind
Because it's been several years
Yeah, my love still rings true
When I look you in the eyes
I can tell it does for you too

Cause I was born, yeah to hold you in my arms
Feel the warmth of your skin
To your precious beating heart
And I may not show it enough
Yeah but this is how it feels
You're like a drink of the sweetest wine
To a breath of fresh, summer air
And you know sometimes I lie in bed
At night lookin' up
And I can't seem to come back to Earth
Tell me how could one guy live such a shitty life
Of never doin' right even deserve you
Mmm, how'd I deserve you

I was born, oh born to love you
And I am unsure why, I am unsure why
But you were born to love me too
Cause it's been several years
Yeah but my love's still so true
Oh I love you
Oh I love you
As you know sometimes I lie in bed
All night lookin' up
And I can't seem to come back to Earth
Please tell me how could one guy live such a shitty life
Of never doin' right even deserve you
Oh how did I deserve you
How did I deserve you
I am unsure why
I am unsure why
