

Wicked Ways

Nolan Taylor

The sky is blue and so am I
I've been fighting these demons inside my mind
Oh, and I wish you didn't feel the same way
And I know that you're blue these days too
And I wish I could change that for you
'Cause you know I love you more than anything

'Cause I can try to change my evil ways
I'd do anything to make it better for you, babe

Like change them skies back to clear as day
Nighttime evening breezy with rain
Oh, I'd do anything to put a smile on your face
Like give you health if you're feeling off
Lend you my eyes to help you see in the dark
Mm, I'll give you marigolds every single day
'Cause I can try to change my wicked ways
I just want you to wake up with a smile on your face

Mm, mm-mm-mm-mm

Oh me oh me oh my
Hell you're the apple of this weary eye
Mm, I wanna be that cardinal in your dogwood tree
Perfect clouds in the grass, we lie
Your favorite birds, they all go flying by
Mm, and everything inside your little precious dreams

'Cause I can try to change my evil ways
And I'd do anything to make it better for you, babe

Like change them skies back to clear as day
My nighttime and evening, breezy, no rain
Mm, I'd do anything to put a smile on your face
Like give you health if you're feeling off
Lend you my eyes to help you see in the dark
Mm, I'll give you marigolds every single day

'Cause I can try to change my wicked ways
