

Drama 2.0

NoMBe

Curtains open, you got your program
You know how the story goes
I take 'em high, you take me home
Back to the fortress, with bats & warheads
If you got lost in what you saw
You should know that after all

Ain't nothin' but drama, I'm just playing a part
When I'm feeling the spotlight, I see nothing but stars
Ain't tryin' to cause problems, when I stumble, I fall
Guess that's just drama, and I give it my all

Ain't nothing but drama
Ain't nothing but drama

All the eyes are on me but my eyes only wanna see you
When the show is done, oh, you're the only one, oh
Even when the crowd's a thousand faces
Million miles away ain't gonna change my love
Ain't nothing but

Ain't nothin' but drama ([?] so strong [?])
I'm just playing a part (I'm just playing a part)
When I'm feeling the spotlight
I see nothing but stars (I'm seeing nothing but stars)
Ain't tryin' to cause problems (ain't tryin' to cause problems)
When I stumble, I fall (when I stumble, I fall)
Guess that's just drama (that's just drama)
And I give it my all (that's just drama, yeah)

Oh no, no
Ain't nothing, ain't nothing but
Ain't nothing, ain't nothing but
No, ain't nothing, ain't nothing but

Play the game although it's grungy
And the rules feel like Jumanji
But once we embark then there ain't no stopping
That's the way daddy taught me
It don't take too much to love me
But a chainsaw, trust and coffee
As the spotlight burns, and mama, that hurts
I have faith there's more above me

Ain't nothin' but drama, I'm just playing a part
When I'm feeling the spotlight, I see nothing but stars
Ain't tryin' to cause problems, when I stumble, I fall
Guess that's just drama, and I give it my all
