NoMBe

Silk and high fashion
Only the best
She wears Chanel's finest
Mixed with coffee and sex

No doubt without question
My baby she's blessed
Ready for action
And dressed for revenge

But you can take it out on me
And don't you dare hold back, no
I'm right here layin at your feet
So tell me what you're waiting for

Go on put your favorite heels on
So go on put your favorite heels on
Go on put your favorite heels on and walk all over me

So go on put your favorite heels on
So go on put your favorite heels on
Go on put your favorite heels on and walk all over me

I wish we could make up
Maybe undress
Just like Mother Earth made us
No fabric, no tags

But we're half past naked
Only half way there
But you're drivin me crazy
Need to know the whereabouts of your legs

But you can take it out on me
But don't you dare hold back, no
I'm right here layin at your feet
So tell me what you're waiting for

Go on put your favorite heels on
So go on put your favorite heels on
Go on put your favorite heels on and walk all over me

So go on put you favorite heels on
So go on put your favorite heels on
Go on put your favorite heels on and walk all over me

Strutting through the depths of my heart and kicking everything that isn't tied down
(Isn't tied down)
Tip-toeing over scar tissue swollen with emotion here to tear it all out

So go on put your favorite heels on
So go on put your favorite heels on
Go on put your favorite heels on and walk all over me

So go on put your favorite heels on
So go on put your favorite heels on

Go on put your favorite heels on and walk all over me
