NoMBe

We want dark rooms, loud tunes, liquor like a taifoon
Kids sellin they mamas mama just to get an iPhone
Shit will blow your mind if you care
So I leave that shit behind in my rear
We want wild shrooms, cartoons, idols you can buy from
Young and gifted hedonistic superficial milestones
Somebody sayin that "I'm just tryna live"
So I pour this liquor out for the kids...

They say the kids are on drugs
Well who am I to judge
I don't wanna get involved
So I might as well indulge
I was once like them
Ain't nobody understand me
Fantasizing about dem panties
Lick it like a piece of candy
They don't understand the real beauty
Double tapping big booties
Sliding in dem DMs with heart emojis hey cutie
This the life of a rockstar millennial
Pull the zipper down now she talking to my genitals

We want dark rooms, loud tunes, liquor like a taifoon
Kids sellin they mamas mama just to get an iPhone
Shit will blow your mind if you care
So I leave that shit behind in my rear
We want wild shrooms, cartoons, idols you can buy from
Young and gifted hedonistic superficial milestones
Somebody sayin that "I'm just tryna live"
So I pour this liquor out for the kids...
