

Born in Hell

Nomy

I was born in hell
Loved by the dead
I'm raised by the once forgotten
Sick and rotten

I was everyone's disgrace
I laugh with a silent face
But once in my life
I was tried to be loved by some
I thought I was kind
But you told me where I belong

I was born in hell
Loved by the dead
I'm raised by the once forgotten
Sick and rotten

I was born in hell
I'm raised by the dead and guilty
Wrecked and filthy

I walk with a broken bone
I smile with a heart of stone
But once in my life
I was lost and I had no home
I want to feel loved
But you told me where I am from

I was born in hell
Loved by the dead
I'm raised by the once forgotten
Sick and rotten

I was born in hell
I'm raised by the dead and guilty
Wrecked and filthy

I will always be alone
In the darkness laughing on my own
And people running to the sound
Let the morning come
Fallen leaves to the ground
At cockcrow Billy was found
Slowly breathing but in vein
In the bloody rain

I was born in hell
Loved by the dead
I'm raised by the once forgotten
Sick and rotten

I was born in hell
Loved by the dead
I'm raised by the once forgotten
Sick and rotten

I was born in hell

I'm raised by the dead and guilty
Wrecked and filthy
