

Das wunderland

Nomy

The one you call pretender, said it's now or never Reach for the horizon and a blood-red sun
You are good for nothing, the wolves are always watching
Reach for the horizon, leaving everyone

You won't fall for nothing, the wolves are always hunting
Find your own solution when you're on the run

When everyone comes for die wunderländer
From the red king to the render four
When the red comes for die wunderländer
When we break down and they want more
So everyone come come to die wunderländer
From the red king to an open door and
When the red comes fur das wunderland and
When we break down and they want more

Das wunderland
Das wunderland

The one you call pretender, said it's now or never
Get your revolution killing everyone
The world is coming at you, the wolves are coming too
Reach for the horizon, leaving everyone

You won't fall for nothing, the wolves are always hunting
Find your own solution when you're on the run

When everyone comes for die wunderländer
From the red king to the render four
When the red comes for die wunderländer
When we break down, das wunderland

When everyone comes for die wunderländer
From the red king to the render four
When the red comes for die wunderländer
When we break down and they want more
So everyone come come to die wunderländer
From the red king to an open door and
When the red comes fur das wunderland and
When we break down and they want more

Das wunderland

Ok meine Freunde
Alle die Idioten auf die Bühne
Let's go

Ich bin ein opfer für alle
Du hast mir gefallen
Und deine krawalle
Machen mich verrückt
Jetzt kommt der kriegler auf dem flieger
Immer und immer wieder
Die Reiche elite
Macht mich ganz bedrückt

The fields, the sea
The redneck county
The beds are burning
That's the end of me

When everyone comes for die wunderländer
From the red king to the render four
When the red comes for die wunderländer
When we break down and they want more
So everyone come come to die wunderländer
From the red king to an open door and
When the red comes fur das wunderland and
When we break down, das wunderland

When everyone comes for die wunderländer
From the red king to the render four
When the red comes for die wunderländer
When we break down and they want more
So everyone come come to die wunderländer
From the red king to an open door and
When the red comes fur das wunderland and
When we break down and they want more
