

Flowers in your hair

Nomy

So here you are with flowers in your hair
Holding hands and give yourself away
All your gods will finally walk the earth
Is what they say but you will be okay
All of your gods

Little one, little one, lying on the stairway
Why doesn't anybody let you in?
You gotta pray every day to be loved by
All of your gods
Tell the words in your book and heaven's gonna open
And maybe god is gonna let you in
You gotta pray every day to be loved by
All of your gods

So here you are with flowers in your hair
Holding hands and give yourself away
All your gods will finally walk the earth
Is what they say but you will be okay

There's a sadness in your eyes
There's a lie you keep inside
Walking with shadows
All we do is to survive
We believe that we can fly
We're dead tomorrow

Little one, little one, lying on the stairway
Why doesn't anybody let you in?
You gotta pray every day to be loved by
All of your gods
Tell the words in your book and heaven's gonna open
And maybe god is gonna let you in
You gotta pray every day to be loved by
All of your gods

So here you are with flowers in your hair
Holding hands and give yourself away
All your gods will finally walk the earth
Is what they say but you will be okay

There's a sadness in your eyes
There's a lie you keep inside
Walking with shadows
All we do is to survive
We believe that we can fly
We're dead tomorrow

But here you are with flowers in your hair
Holding hands and give yourself away
All your gods will finally walk the earth
Is what they say but you will be okay

Little one, little one, lying on the stairway
Why doesn't anybody let you in?
You gotta pray every day to be loved by
All of your gods

Fuck all your Gods
Collectively making shit up
Fuck all your Gods
Fuck all your Gods
Fuck all your Gods
Collectively making shit up
Fuck all your Gods
Fuck all your Gods
