Freakshow - 2000

Nomy

Would you hold me if I'm empty
Would you care if I was lost
Would you love me if I'm guilty
No matter for what cause
Would you use your knife against me
Would you cut me just to see
If I would go to heaven
Or Hell is home for me
So welcome to my freakshow
This is who I am
A part of me is empty
In emptiness I stand
So seek my imagination
And take a look around
This is my creation
This is what I found
So let me pass
Away
This empty life
Is yours to have
And let them burn
For all they done
I close my eyes
Against the sun
Would you kiss me while I bleed
Would you see me close my eyes
Cause I won't live forever
My pain within you lies
So welcome to my freakshow
You may never leave
This is all I know
Tell lies that will decieve
I (I) can't (can't) sleep (sleep)
Cause they scream
In my head
I (I) can't (can't) think (think)
Cause of you
Dreams come true
So let me pass
Away
This empty life
Is yours to have
And let them burn
For all they done
I close my eyes
Against the sun
So let me pass
Away
This empty life
Is yours to have
So let me pass
Away
This empty life
Is yours to have
And let them burn
For all they done
I close my eyes

Against the sun
So welcome to my freakshow
You are in my head
A part of me is empty
Welcome to my freakshow
You are in my head
This is what you'll have
As soon as I'll be dead
Is it you or is it me
Am I blind or can I see
If you know what I can dream
Can you break my selfesteem
Can you pull me through the sky
Will it end if I would die
Can you carry me along
In peace where I belong
Every situation
I know it is a game
It's my bad condition
You will feel my pain
Try to understand them
Try to ask them why
Why they are inside me
Will it end if I would die
