

God Said No

Nomy

Taking you for granted How did you end up here
All the dark around you still you feel no fear

But why do you sleep outside when you are cold where can you go
God said no

What you have done I dont mind to bring you home
Mad of silence mad of pain and all alone in poring rain

I dont have to walk by in shame or guilt
Cause this is not what I have buildt
I dont have to walk by in shame or guilt
Cause this what I allways felt

So why do you sleep outside
when you are cold where can you go
God said no

I dont have to walk by in shame or guilt
Cause this is not what I have buildt
I dont need to walk by and pitty you
But help me god what else to do

But why do you sleep outside
when you are cold where can you go
God said no
