

Last Forever

Nomy

Let it go, let it go
You'll find a new one when you'll get home
Let it fly, let it fly
You'll get a new life when old days die

But all we do is try to make it last
And that is why you're in the past
It's looking down on you from up above
You're reaching out for what you love
For what you love

Let it go, let it go
It's the same shit, don't you know?
You hold on and you say you'll last forever
Let it go, let it go
Are you dumb or fucking slow?
You hold on and you say you'll last forever
Let it go

Let it burn, let it burn
There's a new one for you in turn
Let it fly, let it fly
You'll get a new one back if you let it fly

But all we do is try to make it last
And that is why you're in the past
It's looking down on you from up above
You're reaching out for what you love
For what you love
For what you love

Let it go, let it go
It's the same shit, don't you know?
You hold on and you say you'll last forever
Let it go, let it go
Are you dumb or fucking slow?
You hold on and you say you'll last forever

Let it go, let it go
There's another pain like the next in row
Let it fly, let it fly
You will smile one day, that's the day you die

Let it go, let it go
It's the same shit, don't you know?
You hold on and you say you'll last forever
Let it go, let it go
Are you dumb or fucking slow?
You hold on and you say you'll last forever

But all we do is try to make it last
And that is why you're in the past
It's looking down on you from up above
You're reaching out for what you love

Let it go, let it go
It's the same shit, don't you know?

You hold on and you say you'll last forever
Let it go, let it go
Are you dumb or fucking slow?
You hold on and you say you'll last forever
Let it go
