When we get older you gonna be on your own
Everyone's gonna be dying for glory
When I get older I'm going to suffer alone

The one and glorious
I think I'm gonna be the last of us
We fall victorious
They'll tell the story of the man I was

Everyone's gonna be dying in our way
When we get older they're gonna be living again
Everything we done gonna be okay
When we are gone then nobody will remember the rain
