

We fall

Nomy

I gave myself some time today
Sat down and criticized my way
The dark was born and I could see
That love is not inside of me
Don't tell me I'm the only one
I've died of what this life has done

I can't handle the pain
This life is so hollow
And I can't make the rain
To drown my own sorrow
And I can't stand this life
When you are my poison
I'm cut by a knife
Of your devotion

I've no reason, I've no reason to live all like this Collect this dust from lies and grief and promises

I can't hand over pain
This life is so hollow
And I can't make the rain
To drown my own sorrow
And I can't stand this life
When you are my poison
I'm cut by a knife
Of your devotion

And this world is lost in fire
and the flames are reaching higher
