

When I'm Gone

Nomy

As I remember when you stood outside my door
You've heard me sing and now you wanted more
You told me poetry of how our lives could be
You're full of shit beyond stupidity

But it's too late to say I'm sorry, you're on your own
Your worthless promise was a heart of stone
But I still wonder how you will live
When you have nothing to give

Who will stand by you when you're all alone
Who will be there when I am gone
When it's time to go, when you drown in fear
Will you have someone that's near

You said a lot of things but I have never seen
Those words of yours in my reality
I gave you all I had, even when you were sad
About your last guy, now it's killing me

But it's too late to say I'm sorry, I'm on my way
To burn all the memories you placed in me
And now that I'm older, I should have say
Experience are painful this way

Who will stand by you, when you're all alone
Who will be there when I'm gone
When it's time to go, when you drown in fear
Will you have someone that's near

Can you hear what I say
From a distant far away
Am I finally free
Can you stay the fuck away from me
Can you hear what I say
From a distant far away
From me

Who will stand by you, when you're all alone
Who will be there when I'm gone (fuck you!)
Time to go, when you drown in fear
Will you have someone that's near

And I will sit by myself now
And it feels so damn right
You're also just a fucking Cola Light
