

hold me down

Noname

Uh, yeah
I hope you understand, everybody scams
A little Peter Pan paranoia, polygram tell the truth
In the booth, feed the drought
Couple opps bleedin' out real heavy
Cop city, ATL, kill ready
And that's your name, people slow
Incentivize money flow
The government got a hold on everything, love
What if the loved one really don't love love
Diminish the one love we trust
That's us

Anywhere we get it, we go get it for now
You was with it when benefits was added to the account
I kicked down on you for a favor for a certain amount
Hold me down, hold me down
Hold me down, hold me down
Anywhere we get it, we go get it for now
You was with it when benefits was added to the account
I kicked down on you for a favor for a certain amount
Hold me down, hold me down
Hold me down, hold me down (Somebody pick me up)

We could scapegoat everything
We could penny pinch the homie for defendin' the dream
A simpler thing, by any mean
Niggas will kill they team
Say the gun did it, run with it
White man or front man, a whole vision
We just see self in his image
Won't be a self-critic, burn up our whole village
That wasn't us, that was colonialism
We keep our babies fed, we don't beat and rape on our women, we good
We is Wakanda, we Queen Rwanda
First black president and he the one who bombed us, yeah
Makin' niggas rich, black billionaire legit
Slave market deficit, rise up the price up
Escapism is better livin' than this Better be honest, baby
We better when we admit
We too can cause harm, we really should link arms
They already take arms, a factory, fake farms
They killers, why we help them kill us? (Hold me down)
(Hold me down, hold me down, hold me down, hold me down, hold me down)

Anywhere we get it, we go get it for now
You was with it when benefits was added to the account
I kicked down on you for a favor for a certain amount
Hold me down, hold me down
Hold me down, hold me down (Somebody pick me up)

And I depend on you
And I depend on you
Just a little bit
Just a little bit
And I depend on you

And I depend on you
Just a little bit more
Just a little bit
