NONONO

(With a little bit of help from my friends
With a little bit of help from my friends
With a little bit of help from my friends
I'll be just fine)

Feel it when his voice is whispering
And I'm feel all twisted
I fight
That'll take us to their calling
Now my pour hearts been soaring down
Get back

With a little bit of help from my friends
With a little bit of help from my friends
With a little bit of help from my friends
I'll be just fine
With a little bit of help from my friends
With a little bit of help from my friends
With a little bit of help from my friends
I'll be just fine
I'll do alright, I'll do alright

So feeling with my demons on me
I've been feeling cold and lonely
I fight
Tired of all this, keeps on turning
And I'm gonna go turn with it
I get back

With a little bit of help from my friends
With a little bit of help from my friends
With a little bit of help from my friends
I'll be just fine (I'll be just fine)
With a little bit of help from my friends
With a little bit of help from my friends
With a little bit of help from my friends
I'll be just fine
I'll do alright, I'll do alright

La la la...

Now with a little bit of..
Now with a little bit of..
With a little bit of..
With a little bit of..
With a little bit of help from my friends
With a little bit of help from my friends
With a little bit of help from my friends
I'll be just fine (I'll be just fine)
With a little bit of help from my friends
With a little bit of help from my friends
With a little bit of help from my friends
I'll be just fine
I'll do alright, I'll do alright
