

Hymn

NONONO

All so very blue
The color that's you
The taste that left me
So very consumed
With flowers and bloom
I'm afraid they're dying

Hymn to the shoreline
Hymn to the field
Hymn to the broken
While we be mortal

If we were like the ocean
The waves'd still be rolling
If our love was swimming
Then we would go on still
Still, forever
Still, forever

Hold so very true
The Earth, it's no cube
[?] light ending
No far in the night
It comes every time
I'm not afraid of the darkness

Hymn to the shoreline
Hymn to the field
Hymn to the broken
While we be mortal

If we were like the ocean
The waves'd still be rolling
If our love was swimming
Then we would go on still
Still, forever
Still, forever

Never as green
Never as blue
Never as green
As another

If we were like the ocean
The waves'd still be rolling
If our love was swimming
Then we would go on still
Still, forever
Still, forever
Still, forever
Still, forever
Still, forever
