

Razorblade

NONONO

Momma was a razorblade
Cutting deep with her fate

I was feeling something feeling you
Feeling some from knowing you

Said momma was the coldest place
Another one on display

I was feeling something feeling you
Feeling some from knowing you

Oooh my walls have fallen
Oooh my walls have fallen

My song had a hollow tune
Filling space in the room

I was feeling something feeling you
Feeling some from knowing you

My game had a stupid end
Needing to start again

I was feeling something feeling you
Feeling some from knowing you

Oooh my walls have fallen
Oooh my walls have fallen

And you, and you alone
Got the part of turning on
Now you, now you alone
Got the part of turning off
You, now you and I
Got the part electrified
You, now you and I
Got the part electrified
You, now you and I
Got the part electrified
You, now you and I

Said momma was a razorblade
Momma was a hollow place
Oh you want an afterglow
Oh I want an afterglow
