

Wasted

NONONO

So very tempted to fall in your eyes
And never look back again
Tell me do you do it
So very tempted to forget my name
And everything that comes with it
But will that feeling remain?

But we're waiting
We're waiting for you
But we're wasted
We're wasted for you
But we're waiting
We're waiting for you
But we're wastin'
We're wastin' for you

Oh, I just don't know
How am I supposed to get a grip
When I just don't know
Said Oh
I just don't know
How am I supposed to keep your heart
When I just don't know

So are you feeling the way that
You always seem to be telling the truth
But tell me do you know you?
So are you feeling your hands on me
In the taste of forever more
Will I wake up tomorrow

But we're waiting
We're waiting for you
But we're wasted
We're wasted for you
But we're waiting
We're waiting for you
But we're wastin'
We're wastin' for you

Oh, I just don't know
How am I supposed to get a grip
When I just don't know
No oh, I just don't know
How am I supposed to keep your heart
When I just don't know

I just don't know
I just don't know
I just don't know
I just don't know
I just don't know

(I just don't know...)
Sudden feelings in me
How can I lie with you tonight?

Oh, I just don't know
How am I supposed to get a grip
When I just don't know
Oh, I just don't know
How am I supposed to keep your heart
When I just don't know
