

Never Ending Hole

Nonpoint

Looking for a little relief or sunlight
I need a break from all the climbing,
My arms are so tired.
You call it pointless?
I call it surviving
In a bad land, made of bad men.

Just a little more adult than this
I didn't know that I was dealing with a child.

Feels like I'm never gonna get out of this
Never ending hole.
I shouldn't have to work this hard to save my soul
But it's the people like you I keep around me
It's got me so in deep
Feels like I'm never gonna get out of this
Never ending hole
That you dig for me!

I guess you forgot the promises that you made
To him and her and them and you and me
I guess you forgot somewhere we were gonna be Better people than we're starting to see
I should've known at the second you opened your mouth
The words that came out with nothing but bullshit.

Just a little more adult than this
I didn't know that I was dealing with a child.

Feels like I'm never gonna get out of this
Never ending hole.
I shouldn't have to work this hard to save my soul
But it's the people like you I keep around me
It's got me so in deep
Feels like I'm never gonna get out of this
Never ending hole
That you dig for me!

I just wanna feel the edge
But it's growing inside.

I just wanna feel the edge
(but it's growing inside)
I've been looking for a little relief inside my head
(but it's growing inside)
From the things I can't forget
I've been looking for a little relief inside my head.

Feels like I'm never gonna get out of this
Never ending hole.
I shouldn't have to work this hard to save my soul
But it's the people like you I keep around me
It's got me so in deep
Feels like I'm never gonna get out of this
Never ending hole
That you dig for me!
That you dig for me!

That you dig for me!
