

Paralyzed

Nonpoint

Am I the only one afraid?

Even with all your studying, you still can't understand me
Even when I'm coloring this picture with crayon
Even with all this punishing, this is never changing
Even with the helpless moments you pray on

Why am I so scared of you?

And through all this struggling, I was under the understanding
That we were trying to make this all better
And through all our bickering that never has an ending
Is gonna be ending now 'cause we're fed up

(Now we're paralyzed.)

Am I the only one scared of you?

(I'm left paralyzed all of the way.)

Why am I the only one afraid?

(I'm left paralyzed.)

Am I the only one so scared of you?

(I'm left paralyzed all of the way.)

Why am I the only one afraid?

(We're a pair of lies.)

I can feel my insides bubblin' 'cause I know what's comin'
And I know how things will be goin'
And I know we don't get along the way that we used to
Because of all the signs that you're showin'

Am I the only one scared of you?

(I'm left paralyzed all of the way.)

Why am I the only one afraid?

(I'm left paralyzed.)

Am I the only one so scared of you?

(I'm left paralyzed all of the way.)

Why am I the only one afraid?

(We're a pair of lies.)

Am I the only one afraid?

(I'm left paralyzed all of the way.)

Am I the only one so scared of you?

(We're a pair of lies.)

Am I the only one afraid?

(I'm left paralyzed all of the way.)

Why am I so scared of you?
