

Passive Aggressive

Nonpoint

Woah, woah, woah
Woah, woah, woah

I don't need no apologies put in front of me
I got a better use for passive aggressive abuse
Throwing shots, dressing them up
Like it's the end of October and every face is covered
Love it or not, this is so blazing hot
I gotta drop another one and walk away slow motion
Letterbox shot from a high-def camera
With a high-budget background explosion
Break-through flowing at a break neck speed
At a wrecking ball's pace
Don't act complacent
Let's face it, we gotta get outta here before it all burns to ashes
Words turn crime to passion
All the evidence you're hiding in the basement
Complacent fashionistas
All the evidence you're hiding in the basement is coming to light

Your scattered thoughts and lack of good intentions
Tells me why you're so passive aggressive with me

So I give the best of me
(Tells me why you're passive aggressive with me)
Just to see the worst in you
(That tells me why you're passive aggressive)

Shave just a little more off the top
Watch everything come spilling out
Engrave the meaning of the message
On your face and set the mood for once
Attach the back of your mind to match what we both know
You have inside and wants to react
Like a deer stepping in front of a bus
Look, you're not fooling anybody
With that slick back, hide it all
With that lipstick on a hog
It's still a pig
You're not fooling anybody
Stop trying to think of the quickest way to distract
The safest way to react
Make a statement with a basis
Yeah, you're not fooling anybody anymore

Your scattered thoughts and lack of good intentions
Tells me why you're so passive aggressive with me

So I give the best of me
(Tells me why you're passive aggressive with me)
Just to see the worst in you
(That tells me why you're passive aggressive)

So I give the best of me
(Tells me why you're passive aggressive with me)
Just to see the worst in you
(Tells me why you're passive aggressive with me)

The meaning in your message (So I give the best of me)
You're trying to hide it from me
Your lack of good intentions (Just to see the worst in you)
Tells me why you're passive aggressive
