

Remember Me (A Frontlines Tribute)

Nonpoint

Will you remember me?
Can't you remember why?
Even though you didn't ask me to
I risk my life for you
You may never know my name
You might not even care
But when the world is burnin' down
You're gonna want me there
Gonna want me there

On the frontlines
Fightin' for your life
On the frontlines
Knowin' tomorrow, I may not be alive
On the frontlines
Fightin' for your life
On the frontlines
Fightin' for your life

Fightin' for your...

When you need protection
Without an agenda
Without an intention
When you've given up
And you've lost your direction
I'll be the [?]
I'll be your north star
I'll be your north star

On the frontlines
Fightin' for your life
On the frontlines
Knowin' tomorrow, I may not be alive
On the frontlines
Fightin' for your life
On the frontlines
Fightin' for your life

On the frontlines
Fightin' for your life
On the frontlines
Knowin' tomorrow, I may not be alive
On the frontlines
Fightin' for your life
On the frontlines
Fightin' for your life

Fightin' for your life
