

Wheel Against Will

Nonpoint

No uphill battles, just wars
Coming to shore dropping literary soldiers
Bold enough to hold the line
Era-defining with the revolution on my shoulders
Breaking spokes on the wheel
That's turning girl against boy
Boy against girl, world against man
Man against world
The average soul is on a path to starving from..

Lack of any kind of feeling connected to compassion
Compartmentalizing every action
The wheel controlling this machine is about to be broken

Metal rubbing against steel - lifeless
(Wheel against will)
You're rusted over. I'm busting loose
(Wheel against will)
Metal rubbing against steel - lifeless
(Wheel against will)
Oh, you're rusted over. I'm busting loose
(Wheel against will)

'Round and around and around
Whittle down every tooth
Every gear inside going 'round
Common ground ain't so common on the feet
When the ground is a street
Made of all the broken dreams
Of the weak, the poor, the feeble, and the meek
Powerless, helpless, homeless on the street
Cowardice, gutless, spineless, heartless
Call 'em misbegotten
'Cause it's gotten so rotten from..

Lack of any kind of feeling connected to compassion
Compartmentalizing every action
The wheel controlling this machine is about to be broken

Metal rubbing against steel - lifeless
(Wheel against will)
You're rusted over. I'm busting loose
