

Flame Twin

Norah Jones

I am the runner
You are the chaser
My twin in flames
Till we meet again

I am the lost
You can't be found
My twin in flames
Lift me from the ground

You are the hider
I am the seeker
My twin, I'm in flames
I'm rolling about

I have a name
You call me by none
My twin, I'm on fire
Come put me out

As God is my witness
I try to be strong
But my twin, I'm on fire
Don't string me along

Wake you from slumber
You fall so hard
Twin, we're in flames
We've gone too far

My pockets are empty
Your heart is stripped bare
My twin in flames
We're not even there

Can't see
Past the border or smoke
My twin, enflamed
Who I'm sorry I woke

The circle continues
As plain as can be
My love, let me go
I should let you be

You are the runner
I am the chaser
My twin in flames
Till we meet again
