

Tell Yer Mama

Norah Jones

I won't cry for you
When the night grows long
And I won't die for you
Because you done me wrong

So tell your mama I said hello
And that she raised you too damn slow
You're too damn slow
Too damn slow

'Cause I've been waiting
For your time
And I've been missing
Out on mine

So tell your father that I said so long
And thanks for raising you so damn wrong
You're so damn wrong
You're so damn wrong, so damn wrong
