

You are driven by hunger your nature reveals
So vulgar yet wonderful that's how you feel
Though you're hurled to the ground you'll be coming on strong
And you show no restraint till your prey is outrun

The creature within the instinct to survive
The fire that keeps you alive

You're animalistic
It's the devil in your heart
You're animalistic
As you tear your soul apart
And for you nothing is sacred
The flesh is your call
Your lust is consuming it all
You're animalistic

Feel your sensual desires in a circle of fire
You're beastie and brutal you're crossing the wire
This is carnal decay it's your sinister side
That's when Innocence dies between darkness and light

Ferociously wipe out devour the weak
The chase and the catch is your peak

You're animalistic
It's the devil in your heart
You're animalistic
As you tear your soul apart
And for you nothing is sacred
The flesh is your call
Your lust is consuming it all
You're animalistic
