So, adjust to these settings, international

It never looked so good

I'm down to run the risk

I want the accident

Maybe I want the crisis

I've done this countless times before

Down to ride the wave

The ones that I create

They'll never be defined by anyone

They never looked so good

Brave marionette

Bleeding out the strings above you

Bleeding out the knives that carved you out

If only you could bite down on the hand

If you can find them in the darkness

It never looked so

Sad

Hey, hey, hey

It never looked so

Good

Hey, hey, hey, hey

It never looked so good

I'm down to run the risk

I want the accident

Maybe I want the crisis

I've done this countless times before

Down to ride the wave

The ones that I create

They'll never be defined by anyone

They never looked so good

It never looked so

Good

Hey, hey, hey

It never looked so good
