

Calling

Normandie

Lay your eyes upon the sky tonight
Realize that you are dead inside
Feel your inner nature calling

Count the stars and count the waves
Count the lives and count the graves
Why do you feel so important?
See the boy become a man
See the girl and understand
Life is bigger than you and me

Lay your eyes upon the sky tonight
Realize that you are dead inside
Feel your inner nature calling

You lost connection to the true and divine
Fell in a deep hole and lost track of time
Now all your demons eat you up from inside
It's safe to say that you are dead in existence
Dead in existence

Can you define what you're feeling?
Or do you hide your emotions away?
You show no sign of persistence
Your blood is resistant
Open your heart 'cause we are all coexistent

Lay your eyes upon the sky tonight
Realize that you are dead inside
Feel your inner nature-
Lay your eyes upon the sky tonight
Realize that you are dead inside
Feel your inner nature calling
Calling, calling hey~

(Lay your eyes upon the sky tonight)
Realize that you are dead inside
Feel your inner nature calling
