

Neverending

Normandie

We're drowning in a sea of greed and lunacy
I've had enough

I will never understand
Why you admire those who won't reach out a helping hand
Open your eyes and watch this world collapse
Because you couldn't give a fuck about the human gaps

How long have we been standing here?
And watched this world fall apart
Even if you would have the chance to change
I'm pretty sure you'd only care about your golden heart!

And in the city that never sleeps
You drive around and popping champagne in your limousine
Where cash is king, you're just a slave to the thrill
And buying whores is just another empty hole to fill

I curse the ground that you stand on and actions you do
Every penny you bury will be the death of you
I'll give you the key to understand, we're all equal in the end!

You think you've got everything
But you're too high to see the world
You think you've got everything
You don't have anything!
You think you know everyone
But they're all fake and plastic
You think you know everyone
So let me break it down

It may seem you're on top of the world
But you will never understand
You bought your every fucking friend!

Hear me out!
There's more to life than finding a way to spend your time
Get a grip on yourself for God's sake!

Fall down, with the empire you've built up
And the blood money you have stacked
Every day is getting colder and it's time for you to stand up and act

I curse the ground that you stand on
And actions you do
Every penny you bury will be the death of you
I'll give you the key to understand, we're all equal in the end!
