

Devotion

North Point Worship

I do the hiding
You do the finding
I do the running
You do the chasing down

I have my questions (Oh you know I do)
You have your reasons
Exhausting my options
There's only surrender now

For the first time in long time
I give you my heart
Unmeasured, unfiltered, the whole thing

I want to pour out all my devotion
Every drop I have is yours
Nothing is wasted here in your presence
I bring you more and more and more

I'm done with the hiding
I'm done with the running (Yes I am)
It won't be easy (But I know)
But I know your worth it all

For the first time in long time
I give you my heart
Unmeasured, unfiltered, the whole thing (Yes I will, yeah)

I want to pour out all my devotion
Every drop I have is yours
Nothing is wasted here in your presence
I bring you more and more and more (Yes I will)
I want to pour out all my devotion
Every drop, every drop I have is yours
Nothing is wasted here in your presence
I bring you more and more and more
I'll bring you more and more and more
I'll bring you more and more and more

If I'm in, I'm going all in
I was made for the deep end
There is nothing more precious than you
I wanna stay a little longer
I'm gonna stay a little longer
You deserve this whole jar of perfume (Pour it all)
So if I'm in, I'm going all in
I was made for the deep end
There is nothing more precious than you (No, no, no, no)
I wanna stay a little longer
I'm gonna stay a little longer
You deserve this whole jar of perfume (Take it all, take it all, yeah)

I want to pour out all my devotion
Every drop I have is yours
Nothing is wasted here in your presence
I bring you more (Bring you more, so much more, so much more God)
I want to pour out all my devotion

Every drop (Oh take it all, every drop is yours)
Nothing is wasted here in your presence
I bring you more and more and more

Yes, I bring you more and more and more
I bring you more and more and more
I bring you more and more and more
Yes, I bring you more and more and more
Yeah, I bring you more (So much more, so much more)
Yeah I bring you more, every drop, every drop God
I bring you more, you deserve it
I bring you more
You deserve this whole jar of perfume
You deserve this whole jar of perfume
You deserve this whole jar of perfume (Just one more time song it)
You deserve this whole jar of perfume
