

Wide Open

North Point Worship

No height, no depth, no laugh, or final breath
Could ever separate us from Your love
No failure, no mistake, no loneliness, or pain
Could ever separate us from Your love
Could ever separate us from Your love

On the other side of everything I'm afraid of
You are standing with Your arms wide open, wide open
Even in my deepest doubts and wonder
You are standing with your arms wide open, wide open

I'm healed, made strong, I've found where I belong
Forever I'm alive now in Your love
I've been changed, unchained, by Your amazing grace
Forever I'm alive now in Your love

On the other side of everything I'm afraid of
You are standing with Your arms wide open, wide open
Even in my deepest doubts and wonder
You are standing with your arms wide open, wide open
(Yes, wide open)

If I make my bed in darkness, if I try my best to hide
You know the farthest ocean, You give the morning its light
I can't run from Your presence, there's no place that far
So I run to you my Savior, there's safety in Your arms

If I make my bed in darkness, if I try my best to hide
You know the farthest ocean, You give the morning its light
I can't run from Your presence, 'cause there's no place that far

So I run to you my Savior, there's safety in Your arms (yes)
There's safety in Your arms (yes)

On the other side of everything I'm afraid of
You are standing with Your arms wide open, wide open
Even in my deepest doubts and wonder
You are standing with your arms wide open, wide open

On the other side of everything I'm afraid of
You are standing with Your arms wide open, wide open
Even in my deepest doubts and wonder
You are standing with your arms wide open, wide open
