

I keep listening
very quietly
you're discussing
your philosophy
there is a long list of what's wrong with me and you go on talking endlessly now

(Chorus)
Whats the problem?
Whats the question?
Where is the answer?
Where is this heading?
You keep talking
Where's it going
If there's an answer I don't know it

PLEASE
You're killing me
PLEASE
You're killing me with all these questions

I've been trying to get along with you doesn't matter what I tried to do Once you starting there is no stopping you no

(Chorus)

You're explaining Very patiently
I'm a problem
What to do with me
I keep listening

But I just don't see now...
