

Clockwork

Northlane

I'm running out of time
I'm running out
I'm running on a feeling, so
I'm running out of time

I'm running out
I'm running on a feeling, so
I'm running out
I'm running on a feeling, so

These are lonely words
Barely on the page
I've a million thoughts
But I can't let them escape
I've got this barrier
Screaming inferior
Am I a saboteur
Lost in the fear
That I'm destined to fail
That I'll de-rail the dream?
I've got nothing to show
But the show must go on
I wish I had the energy

I'm running out
I'm running on a feeling, so
I'm running out
I'm running on a feeling, so

I'm running out of time
I'm running out
I'm running on a feeling, so
I'm running out of time
I'm running out, I'm running out
I'm so empty, so empty
I'm so empty, so empty
I'm running out of time
I'm running out of time

Help me see the rainbow

Help me see the rainbow
Through my clouded eyes
I'm in half the mind
To leave it all behind
Help me see the rainbow
I can't find a pulse
And it's getting cold
Help me see the rainbow

I'm running out of time
I'm running out
I'm running on a feeling, so
I'm running out of time
I'm running out, I'm running out
I'm so empty, so empty
I'm so empty, so empty

I'm running out of time
I'm running out of time

I'm running out of time
Yeah
