

Silver

Nosferatu

I'm so desperately lonely untouched and so wholly surrendered to death's sweet promise in un-ending sadness consumed by a gladness to willingly follow you home

You sing'd me
loo loo loo loo loo loo loo loo
bye bye
sing me
loo loo loo loo loo loo loo loo

Until I'm safely in your world
as the sticky buds of death unfurl you'd hold me gently in your arms but alone across the floor she moves her shadow shared a secret with the moon
i hunt for you
i stole the sun to buy you

These blood red roses fill your pocket with a rose we can run run run away run run run away to find a bed among the stars
'cause there's nothing here but scars I know you'll come come come If I don't cry

sing me

you hold me gently in your arms
and why I die they'll find us with

Your blood my blood
your bones my bones
your skin is my skin
your body is my body
your bones in my skin
my skin is your skin
and my body

Is so safely in your world so safely in your world (I'm safely in your world so safely in your world) x2

Where there's nothing but silver so sharp and so pure to release me and peacefully cure
though the impulse
is tragic
I know you're there magically waiting to sing me to sleep

sing me

I steal the sun to buy your love
