

Six feet below

Nosferatu

She say's desire leads to despair,
I never said it was, so easy to become,
Another secret, tearing at your heart,
I'm becoming what I swore I'd never be again.
Alone.

I don't need a reason, to take your life,
Just wanna pull you down, six feet below tonight.
I don't care for answers, I don't want your love,
Just wanna make you six feet below.

She says there's time to kill,
I'm never sure what it is they're waiting for.
Some dreamless fucked morality.
They've become what I know I'll never be.
So old.

I don't need a reason, to take your life,
Just wanna pull you down, six feet below tonight.
I don't care for answers, I don't want your love,
Just wanna make you six feet below.

A shallow immitation.
There's nothing left inside.
The ones I wanted died.
Always.
Yeah, you can say what you like, But I never, never lied.
You bitch.
