

Cascade

Not Enough Space

Wide awake from when I was you
I'm dreaming of me
Wide awake from when I was you
I lose me

Cascade down this memory lane with me
Don't say you don't wanna stay with me

It would be a miracle
It would be a miracle
If we ever talk again, ever laugh again
Ever breathe again

So in over my head
That I wanna change your mind
That I would rather go back in time

Wide awake from when I was you, I'm sinking
Wide from when I was you, I lose feeling

Cascade down this memory lane with me
Don't say you don't wanna stay with me

It would be a miracle
It would be a miracle
If we ever talk again, ever laugh again
Ever breathe again

So in over my head
That I wanna change your mind
That I would rather go back in time

I'm the cause, I'm the one who pushed you away
And I'm lost, I'm the one who has to break, to break
