

Loveless

Not Enough Space

I gave us a chance
It was a one-night, without a stand
Hopeless, we fell in too deep
Romantic, our love was cheap

But I'd rather die alone than end up with you
I'd rather die alone

Why not just start this over, at least when we're not sober
We water these dead flowers
We're not gonna bolt to cover

I gave us a chance
It was a one-night, without a stand
Hopeless, I gave everything
Romantic, there's nothing left of

I'd rather die alone than end up with you
I'd rather die alone

I'd rather die alone than end up with you
I'd rather die alone than end up with you

Why not just start this over, at least when we're not sober
We hollowed out our hearts
We blame the stars and call it love

Yeah, come on
Why not just fucking give up
This will never be enough
You break my heart for the hell of it
You blame me, it's irrelevant
Self-defeat seldom tastes me
But it's what you think I need
We fall endlessly
We repeat history and call it
