

Waiting 4 U

Not Enough Space

Lookin' through photographs and they're playing with my head
Wish I could take it back from the night when we first met
Now I'm starting to think the pain and suffering
Was something you called love
When day after day you made me feel like
I never was enough

Stop, beggin', for beggin' for (Mercy)
Shit's pitiful
I know how the story ends (For you)
Let's skip fast forward (Skip fast forward)

So done waiting for you
To make your mind up
I found somebody new
To get me off the shit that you did
And I know you regret
The bed that you made
So just fuckin' burn it
I'm done waiting for you
(So let that sink in)

Now I can sleep at night with your shit out of my place
God Damn it feels so nice to finally walk away
Better think twice before you call me
'Cause all you'll hear is
(Your call has been forwarded to voicemail)
I'm not the one to tell your story
You did it on your own

Stop, beggin', for beggin' for (Mercy)
Shit's pitiful
I know how the story ends
Let's skip fast forward

So done waiting for you
To make your mind up
I found somebody new
To get me off the shit that you did
And I know you regret
The bed that you made
So just fuckin' burn it
I'm done waiting for you
(So let that sink in)
So let that sink in

Waiting for you

So done waiting for you
To make your mind up
I found somebody new
And I know you regret
The bed that you made
So just fuckin' burn it
I'm done waiting for you
(So let that sink in)

So let that sink in

Waiting for you
(Waiting for you)
