

3rd Eye

Not3s

Hahahaha
I'm trying
I'm trying, I'm trying, I'm trying
I'm trying to piece it properly like
Huh? This could be, this could be
This could be the one that I need
'Cause I haven't got the instrumental version
JAE5

No darkness can block sun's light
Gotta have my third eye open
Third eye open at all times
Snake's sliver through this mankind
But when you third eye's open
Third eye's open, you'll survive
There wasn't no-one, only one for me was you, the truth
If you disappear I'll find it fair with the way I done you
And that's the truth

They try likkle man me, but I'm only getting bigger
Hook up with old hoes, silly slip up
Hennessy and Cali made me see the world different
Forget who I am, link up with the wrong bitches, ah
Kid on the way, but who am I kidding?
If I weren't with A and didn't need the other, is it still cheating?
The world makes shit worse when the story's misleading
It is what it is, charge it to the game and leave then
You're still a queen, but another one bites the dust
Giving us when you feel like I be giving up
I fucked up this pearl, I went and lost your trust
But with me, babygirl, are you still in love?
Blush through the times that we fuss and cuss
Pretty princess covered in princess cuts
Painting the dream that you saw for us
I need you holding on tighter

No darkness can block sun's light
Gotta have my third eye open
Third eye open at all times
Snake's sliver through this mankind
But when you third eye's open
Third eye's open, you'll survive
There wasn't no-one, only one for me was you, the truth
If you disappear I'll find it fair with the way I done you
And that's the truth

Still would you stay down while I lift you up?
Down while I lift you up, down while I lift you up
Stay, stay down while I lift you up
Ay, stay down while I lift you up, babe
Stay down while I lift you up
Down while I lift you up, down while I lift you up
Stay, stay down while I lift you up
Ay, stay down while I lift you up, stay

No darkness can block sun's light
Gotta have my third eye open

Third eye open at all times
Snake's sliver through this mankind
But when you third eye's open
Third eye's open, you'll survive
There wasn't no-one, only one for me was you, the truth
If you disappear I'll find it fair with the way I done you
And that's the truth
