

Don't lose your focus
Don't you go lose yourself
Don't lose your focus
Don't lose your focus
Or else you gon' lose yourself
Yeah, yeah, yeah

I got, love from everyone and every city, I got Brothers to ride for me if things start getting gritty, I got
Girls who would lie with me and real ones that will cry for me
If someone put a knife in me and tries to take the life that I got

Love from everyone and every city, I got
Brothers to ride for me if things start getting gritty, I got
Girls who would lie with me and real ones that will cry for me
If someone put a knife in me and tries to take the life that I got

I've been through trials and tribulations
Jury mess me over but my bro got it nice he kinda owes me his life
Oh we laugh about them times
'Cause that was back then we owned them businesses and now we just do our mo thers proud
They just wanna see us down but that will never be the case
They just wanna see a tear drop from my black woman's face
Man they, loving when we draw blood from a black brother's vein
Yeah who secretly want us to pain
But I want them to pay
That's why I'm steady gettin' it in numerous ways
Grindin' through the nights and the days, keep up with me
I ain't bein' cocky, I'm just being honest
Nobody could ever stop me, I'm forever runnin'
I'm the truth and you try some of this pudding
Catch them fishes with the way I bring the hooking
While they're ravin' best believe that I'm playin'
My tunes out but physically I'm in the booth cookin'
To make another one, another one and another one
'Til the summer comes even then I'm makin' another song
Haters on my body but I shrug 'em off, shrug 'em off
I could see them plottin' but I got the drop, got the drop

Love from everyone and every city, I got
Brothers to ride for me if things start getting gritty, I got
Girls who would lie with me and real ones that will cry for me
If someone put a knife in me and tries to take the life that I got

I'm the one
I chose the red pill they took the blue one
I ain't got the same mentality as most these new dons
Your team should eat off your plate for now if they're just servin' you
But I guess some people minds switch up when they start makin' new funds
That's the new money, yeah they ain't gain no knowledge from the queen's hea d they gainin' more from mine but it's cool at least they know

Told 'em I got the power and they should take notes
Looks like they took it literally though
Oh, well, fuck 'em, if it was ever somethin' I could mention but we way past that
'Cause we a five star pack, five star gang
Calculated like some dues 'cause there's so many where we grew
Loyal like the tux on ends 'cause they were local too
Product of my environment, my city's all I knew [?] London all I know
With Tottenham down the road

Now there's different kinda bread being made
All the walls are breakin' down all around me but for now the crowds are jus t shoutin' my name
Pop three with all of the greats in the UK
Oh they think I'm overly irrational, I'm such an animal
Chewing away piece of me I'm a cannibal
Stick to how you're runnin' free and let them keep doubting you
But one day they will worship all the greatness that you've actually got

I got, love from everyone and every city, I got
Brothers to ride for me if things start getting gritty, I got
Girls who would lie with me and real ones that will cry for me
If someone put a knife in me and tries to take the life that I got

Don't lose your focus
Don't lose your focus
Don't you go lose yourself
Don't lose your focus
