

Neverland

Not3s

Team too high and I'm prayin' that we never land down
My team too high and I'm prayin' that we never land now
In the neverland
Team too high and I'm prayin' that we never land down, no
Hm, hm, yeah, look, hmm

They didn't think that I could switch the riddim, no they didn't
I always kept it one hundred with the shit I've written
I know some guys that can't wait for me to drop my dough
Wait for me to drop my bread, man I call them pigeon
I've always risen above every challenge
No competin' 'cause I'm rising above every talent
Hittin' notes, man I'm rising above ballad
MC Quakez man you really need to know the balance
Sit down, chill and balance
Understand I'm not your average
I'm not on beef but I'm defo not a salad
Don't get me confused
I know me some goons myself, let's leave it out
Coldest riddim, dam flows
Hittin' clubs up in Rotterdam, just to chat my Rotter-Dam
Lookin' for my one in a sixty million out of the sixty million

Ooh and in the neverland
My team too high and I'm prayin' that we never land now
My team too high and I'm prayin' that we never land down, no
In the neverland
My team too fly and I'm prayin' that we never land down
My team too high and I'm prayin' that we never land down

Ooh
They say I'm out the talk but I still climb
Got two feet up in this game but I still fly
Hit up the motherland for a native show
It sure felt like Neo in the Matrix seein' real life
What's bein' televised is far from what my people is
'Cause my people really live, history won't ever die
Empire mind with my enterprise
Who would've thought that Limehouse would take us worldwide
Let them breathe
'Cause they ain't never heard you speak like this
That's what she say, cheeky threeway
Hakkasan, Saint Tropez and I can give her a mean day
Ridin' with my brothers you best give us some leeway
Rep the whole of Hackney from the N4 to E8
From black box with Lotes
You really got to make a toast, ay

My team too high and I'm prayin' that we never land now
My team too high and I'm prayin' that we never land down, no
In the neverland
My team too fly and I'm prayin' that we never land down
My team too high and I'm prayin' that we never land down
