

Tried

Not3s

Yeah-yeah, yeah-yeah

From time I've learned my mind's been blurred, but I don't listen
Searchin' what was never missin', you've been in my vision, yeah
The heart grows fonder when I wonder and keep my distance
On your net from that distance, guess I'm trapped in your cell like prison, yeah

For us to try, at least then we can say we tried
Move on or stay, at least then I know if you're mine
She says that's kinda selfish from my side
But I can be in check or out of line

Am I what you really want?
Is it me that you're really on?
Them sly signs ain't addin' up
Say it with your chest if you wanna walk
If you leave me alone
Was I who you really love?
Was there ever really love?
Help me make my mind up

In life, there's choices
We all have voices
Voices that go unnoticed
Till someone approaches
You ratin' me is a bonus
If the love ain't real, then it's hopeless
Bell Biv DeVoe, she's poison
Lookin' for some anointin', uh

(Need space to try)
For us to try, at least then we can say we tried
(You make a choice)
Move on or stay, at least then I know if you're mine
(Or anyone else's)
She says that's kinda selfish from my side
('Cause I'm everyone else's)
But I can be in check or out of line

Am I what you really want?
Is it me that you're really on?
Them sly signs ain't addin' up
Say it with your chest if you wanna walk
If you leave me alone
Was I who you really love?
Was there ever really love?
Help me make my mind up

Active, so I'm actionin'
How I live, what's happenin'?
You love all that lavish shit, I'm grabbin' it
Drip on, so I drown in it
Been peak, I'm the GOAT, where the mountain is?
Big Not3s, real Not3s, no counterfeits, still countin' it
Love cost hundreds of thousands
Priceless, but I gotta count on it, why?

(Need space to try)
For us to try, at least then we can say we tried
(You make a choice)
Move on or stay, at least then I know if you're mine
(Or anyone else's)
She says that's kinda selfish from my side
('Cause I'm everyone else's)
But I can be in check or out of line

Am I what you really want?
Is it me that you're really on?
Them sly signs ain't addin' up
Say it with your chest if you wanna walk
If you leave me alone
Was I who you really love?
Was there ever really love?
Help me make my mind up
