

Who Changed?

Not3s

They always saying you changed when they see you hop up in a new lane
Who changed on you
Yhhh yhhhhhhh
Who changed on who
Yh yh
Who changed on who
Smaller crew but still the same dargs I don't need another new face
Can't rely on you
Yhhh yhhhhhhh
Ain't changed on you
Yh yh
Who changed on who

Who went and changed on you cause if it's me I never knew
As far as I'm aware when I appear the colours true
The ice the gold the juice
You'd kill to be this yute
I see it cause I'm from a block where the hoodlums hang
But they can't hate on man because they chose to gang
And I chose the fans
My whole hood show me love because they've known of man
Block parties turning up and still my songs would bang
No older could come claim they we're controlling man
If I ain't with my real ones then I'm a lonely man
Ting claiming she more than a fling that's defo cap
Clout chasing one hell of a drug I've noticed that Can't expect a girl to take rejection like a man
But it's cool island breeze I'm bare feet in the sand
Yh my son is being born can't wait to hold his hand
The mother to my child can burn up any thermostat
She rocking with me no matter what you don't understand
They wanna be fucking With the plans
Plans plans fucking with the plans
Send em b if they think they could be fucking with the fam

I'ma be a dad to my son
I promise that I won't leave him
My dad weren't about he'd rather be out dope dealing

I can't blame the man it weren't like he had no reason
Hand by hand surrounded by them dope dealers
Trapped in their ways but most these trappers won't see it
Barely helped back then it's cool I'm grown I don't need him
I stepped on the pitch been balling like it's pro season
God in what I do I birthed a blessing I'm like O Jesus
