

Hold On Me

NOTD

I thought I left you in London
Five years ago we were done and
I locked you in my subconscious
Ripped out a couple of pages
Hit some embarrassing phases
Honestly, haven't thought about you in ages

'Til I saw you there
Looking different and exactly the same
And I tried not to care
But nothin' has changed
'Cause you still got a hold on me
Hold on me
Yeah, you still got a hold on me
Hold on me
On me, on me

[?] in the past tense
One look and I'm back in
Now, we're talking like it's back then
And I don't know why it ended
I don't want to go there
I kinda want to go there
It's already too late

'Cause I saw you there
Looking different and exactly the same
(Exactly the same)
And I tried not to care
But nothin' has changed
'Cause you still got a hold on me
Hold on me
Yeah, you still got a hold on me
Hold on me
On me, on me

I thought I made it out, but I fell in too deep
After all this time, now you still got a hold on me
And I tried not to rewind, but we're stuck on repeat

Yeah, you still got a hold on me
Hold on me
Yeah, you still got a hold on me
Hold on me
On me, on me
Hold on me
Hold on me
Yeah, you still got a hold on me
