

Hostage

Nothing But Thieves

When I'm in the dark
Sometimes I feel like a hostage
Keep me in the dark
I want to feel like a hostage

The night and the dark appreciate
The light and the heart we generate
My heart and my soul co-operate
I want you to be happy

I just want to give myself to it
I'll come when you call me a little bitch
It gets to me when you whisper it

Sometimes I feel like a hostage
When I'm in the dark
Sometimes I feel like a hostage
Point it at my heart

I want you
I want you to be happy

The day and the night don't separate
This ache for you starts to dominate
I'm finding it hard to concentrate
I want you to be happy

I wait for you like a prisoner
Whatever it is that moves in us
It's starting to feel a lot like love
I want you to be happy

When I'm in the dark
Sometimes I feel like a hostage
Keep me in the dark

I warned you
I want you to be happy
I want you
I want you to be happy
