

Keeping You Around

Nothing But Thieves

Your lips want anyone else, mine taste like everyone else
Oh, that's a tragedy
Try not to pity myself, you fall back into yourself
Oh what a mess we're in

Slow down, show me
Tell me how a modern human should be
"It's so easy"
You're so pretty when you lie to me

But how much blame can we take babe? Oh
When all our friends are so shady

Your lips want anyone else, mine taste like everyone else
Oh, that's a tragedy
Try not to pity myself, you fall back into yourself
Oh, what a mess we're in
I've got more hope of killing war
Or seeing sound, ah
Than I've got of keeping you around
Of keeping you around, of keeping you around

Dead club, so low
So good at pretending it's fun though
Head fuck, won't go
So tired of being tired, you know

I wish I could make it easy oh
I'm still a broken machine babe

Your lips want anyone else, mine taste like everyone else
Oh, that's a tragedy
Try not to pity myself, you fall back into yourself
Oh, what a mess we're in
I've got more hope of killing war
Or seeing sound, ah
Than I've got of keeping you around
Of keeping you around, of keeping you around

Build something up just to knock it down
Live a quiet life in a quiet town
Maybe everyone will forget me now
Could we just start over?
Build something up just to knock it down
Live a quiet life in a quiet town
Maybe everyone will forget me now
Could we just start over?

Your lips want anyone else, mine taste like everyone else
Oh, that's a tragedy
Try not to pity myself, you fall back into yourself
Oh, what a mess we're in
I've got more hope of killing war
Or seeing sound, ah
Than I've got of keeping you around
Of keeping you around, of keeping you around
