

Moral Panic

Nothing But Thieves

This is the last day of my life
Yours too
Haven't you ever seen the ocean look so blue?
And now we're running out of time
She said
All of the children are so anxious, they're on edge
Yeah, it's tense
So tense

Moral panic
Is setting in
Terror fever
It's too late to begin
Your excuses
Are wearing thin
Moral panic
It's too late to begin

Moral panic
Is setting in
Terror fever
It's too late to begin
Your excuses
Are wearing thin
Moral panic
It's too late to begin

This is the last day of my life
Yours too
Better be ready 'cause it's coming
To find you
Oh no, they don't call it a lie
Its post truth
And now the blackest sky is falling over you
And it's soon
So soon

Moral panic
Is setting in
Terror fever
It's too late to begin
Your excuses
Are wearing thin
Moral panic
It's too late to begin

It's too late to begin

Now the earth
It turns so slow
Strike up a match
And we let it go

Now the earth
It burns so slow
A million faces in a row
We're standing back and we watch it go

And we let it go
And we let it go
And we let it

Moral panic
Is setting in
Terror fever
It's too late to begin
Your excuses
Are wearing thin
Moral panic
It's too late to begin

Now the earth
It burns so slow
A million faces in a row
We're standing back and we watch it go
And we let it go
And we let it

If we're on our own then we let it go
If we're on our own then we let it go
Information age is the modern joke
If we're on our own then we let it go
