Nothing More

I am more than
What you think of me

Is it true, well can it be?
Living in my fantasy
All I knew was to be true
Has forsaken
Now I see what I've become
Nothing more than awesome
Why I feel so out of place
They've done shrinking

Why I wonder, where the time has gone?
Is it more than it has been all along?
Won't you save me from this adultery?
Who has come who will die for me?

Could you try to understand?
Choking back my cries
Drowning beneath myself
As I try to wonder why
Could you try to understand?
Choking back my cries
Drowning beneath myself
As I try to wonder why
I try to wonder why

Another question in my mind
Am I running out of time?
Fast forward, take a stand
Before it's over
As I say, my heart wants more
With the pain I've felt before
Running with what I believe
One step closer

Why I wonder, where the time has gone?
Is it more than it has been all along?
Won't you save me from this adultery?
Who has come who will die for me?

Could you try to understand?
Choking back my cries
Drowning beneath myself
As I try to wonder why
Could you try to understand?
Choking back my cries
Drowning beneath myself
As I try to wonder why
Why?

I know this
It's so clear
Nothing's missing
Nothing to fear

I know this

It's so clear
Nothing's missing
Nothing to fear
Nothing to fear
Nothing to fear

Could you try to understand?
Choking back my cries
Drowning beneath myself
As I try to wonder why
Could you try to understand?
Choking back my cries
Drowning beneath myself
As I try to wonder why

Could you understand?
Choking back my cries
Drowning beneath myself
As I try to wonder why
