

FREEFALL

Nothing More

I'm in a freefall
I'm in a freefall
I'm in a

One step ahead but I'm still behind where I thought I'd be by this time
It's hard to please, much less believe the screaming voice in my head
In my head

I'm in a freefall
Racing to the ground
I'm scared I'll lose it all
Is anybody out there
Or am I alone?
Reaching out for someone in a freefall

I've got a million reasons to hold on
But I need one to let it go
I smile like I'm okay
But I got pain that no one knows
No one knows

I think that I'm thinking too much
So I drink till I'm drinking too much
It's all spinning faster and faster

I'm in a freefall
Racing to the ground
I'm scared I'll lose it all
Is anybody out there
Or am I alone?
Reaching out for someone in a freefall

I'm in a freefall
I'm in a freefall
Am I alone?
Reaching out for someone
In a freefall
I'm in a
Free, yeah

I'm in a freefall
Racing to the ground
I'm scared I'll lose it all
Is anybody out there
Or am I alone?
Reaching out for someone in a freefall
Yeah
